Days of Dialogue Empowerment Congress

Questions

1. The Emancipation Proclamation was designed to end the enslavement of African American people in the United States effective January 1, 1863. Federal Troops arrived in Galveston, Texas on June 19, 1865 to take control of the state and ensure that enslaved people were set free. What, do you believe some of the reasons were that Juneteenth is celebrated instead of the effective date of the Emancipation Proclamation, January 1, 1863?
2. What do you consider to be “true emancipation?” How is it achieved?
3. What is “Black Excellence” and how is it achieved?
