You can keep walking “hey where you going? Hey what are you doing?”

You can ask: Do I fit the description of any crime that’s been committed? And they say no- then you are free to go.

Officer to the students: I didn’t know that you heard me, but now I know that you did. Thank you brother. I really appreciate that.

You can't control what the different officers do, you can just control what you do.

How to deescalate your scenario

If a cop is beating you up, you got to do something that changes what's going to happen.

If you're walking around with a hoody on and it's 100 degrees and shit, they going to pull you over.

Difference between detain and arrest: you have the belief that you cannot go.

If I shoot a K-9 dog, is that the same as if I shoot an officer? It is animal cruelty. Considered property. You'll get maybe 10 years instead of 30 years.

We learned that the policy with minors, has to be a violent crime- pulling a gun- can't just stop a minor for walking down the street.

Should teachers have guns? I don't think so, because a lot of kids would steal them. Also you don't know if a teacher has good aim. They might shoot and hit the wrong person.

Everyone here was wondering why black and brown people are getting killed. The news only shows this. The next day, maybe a white officer killed a white man, and the news doesn't show that.

Thank

You...

THANK YOU !
